

Pain in Child Health

Changing the way we care for children in pain.

The Pain in Child Health program is a community of researchers focused on cultivating new talent and promoting new discoveries in the field of child pain. Our goal is to make a lasting international impact on children's pain, benefiting children's health, and their futures.

paininchildhealth.dal.ca

Overview

1 in 5
Canadian children have chronic pain.

1 in 20
are disabled by their pain.

2/3 of children with chronic pain become adults with pain, costing society billions.

Children in hospitals average six painful procedures every day.

Impact (2002-2013)

218 Trainees

Entering level

17%
Post-doctoral fellows

47%
PhD students

27%
Masters students

9%
Undergrad students

Disciplines

- Psychology
- Nursing
- Medicine
- Pharmacology
- Neuroscience
- Anesthesiology
- Interdisciplinary
- Anthropology
- Computer science
- Education
- Engineering
- Epidemiology
- Kinesiology
- Occupational Therapy
- Physics
- Veterinary

Training Activities

Program Graduates

Publications

Research network across 14 countries

Financial support has been provided by:

