

3rd PICH Institute (British Columbia, 2003)

Sunday May 2nd, 2004

19:00 - Reception

19:30 - Introductions

Did you have friends before PICH? - Activity led by Pat McGrath and Liz Job (30 min)

Mentor workshop, continued - Activity led by Ken Craig

Monday May 3rd, 2004

08:00 - Breakfast

08:30-09:30 - Workshop 1: CIHR - Michael Kramer (Strategic Priorities in Reproductive and Child Health Research)

09:30-09:45 - Break

09:45-10:45 - Workshop 2: Patrick McGrath (Grant-writing)

10:45-11:00 - Break

11:00-12:00 - Workshop 3: Christine Chambers (A PICH-hiker's guide to the research galaxy: Survival strategies for the early career pediatric pain scientist)

12:00 - Lunch

Afternoon Free for recreation and networking

18:30 - Dinner

19:30 - Carl von Baeyer, Bonnie Stevens & Pat McGrath (The art of doing presentations: Tips on slide design and slide talks)

Bonnie Stevens (Evaluation of PICH: Feedback to trainees and to CIHR)

Pat McGrath (Trainees discuss their proposals in small groups using a checklist)

Tuesday May 4th, 2004

08:00 - Breakfast

08:30-09:30 - Workshop 4: Mark Jensen (Pain assessment in adults and children: Towards the development of a research agenda)

09:45-10:45 - Workshop 5: Tim Oberlander (Medications used in pain management and outcomes of analgesic trials)

10:45-11:00 - Break

11:00-12:00 - Workshop 6: Yves De Koninck (Pain pathways in spinal cord: early postnatal development)

12:00 - Lunch

Afternoon Free for recreation and networking

18:30 - Dinner

19:30 - Trainees present their proposals to the whole group

Wednesday May 5th, 2004

08:00 - Breakfast

08:30-09:30 - Workshop 7: Gayle Page (Methods and issues in attempting to assess biologic outcomes related to pain and stress)

09:30-09:45 - Break

09:45-10:45 - Workshop 8: Gary Walco (On a scale of 0 to 10, how are we doing in defining clinical outcomes in pain research? Self-report, behavioral observations, physiological changes, functional status, and quality of life)

11:00-12:00 - Workshop 9: Ron Blount (On the road to find out: Research designs and a possible sequence for inquiry)

12:00 - 12:30 - Check out

12:00 - Lunch

14:30 - Travel to Georgia Hotel, Vancouver, by bus

Check in, then attend reception for APS Pediatric Pain Day